

I am reminded now of all the years gone by
No use in crying now, it's time to say goodbye

Turn the page on all we are
Always searching
Turn the page on all we were
Always searching...
Always searching...
All now be as one

Hey my dear the way you must feel, the weight of this life is twisting your mind!
Cage my fear, Elektra is here, the truth of your mind and the words of the vine
I wish you would get it right too, so we pray to the gods cause it's time you arrived

I AM I AM I
I will return always
I AM I AM I
I will return awake

'Follow emotions?! ...Dumb.'

Slowly we grow the second wave, but the northern people like it cold
So raise your glasses to the underworld! (See ya...)

So what are we doing tonight? (WATCHING UNIVERSES COLLIDE!)

Hey my dear the way you must feel, the weight of this life is twisting your mind!
I hope you will show me right through the prayer from the goddess of infinite light
And I won't wait or fear the mistakes we learned in our youth now it's time for us to arrive

I must learn from this reality if I intend to awake

And though I travel through the infinite, I will return always!
