

The Greys

Devin Townsend

Stay away from the unknown
Stay away from me for a while, unknown...
You give me all your heart, you give me all your heart for me
It's the greys again I know, I know,
And it's a sinister game they play, I know... I know.
You give me all your heart, give me all your heart for me

And the words they get so loud
And when they start to tear you apart
You were right, you were always right
Ready or not here I come!!!

And the greys flood our memories in the long haul
Can the greys wash away?

Chaos!

And the words they get so loud
And when they start to tear you apart
You were right, you were always right there
Ready or not here I come!!!

And the greys flood our memories in the long haul (3x)
