

One Shot

Devour The Day

Are you ready?
Are you ready for?
Are you ready for your one shot?
Are you ready?
Are you ready for?
Are you ready for your one...

One shot
You only get one shot
Keep your eye on the target
You only get one shot
One shot

Chance, if you don't take it
Then you won't make it far
You won't make far in this dance
The ebb and flow of our broken souls
Before we let go, before we advance
Into the afterlife where we're out of time
And we can't, we can't try again
You can't try again

One shot
You only get one shot
Keep your eye on the target
You only get one shot
One shot

Slow, that's the kind of death I accept
If I let it pass, if I let it go
A bitter taste of my wasted youth
And I'll always hate it, I'll always know
What could've, should've and would've been
If I had the strength to just let it show
So let it show

One shot
You only get one shot
Keep your eye on the target
You only get one shot
One shot

Are you ready?
Are you ready for?
Are you ready for your one shot?
Are you ready?
Are you ready for?
Are you ready for your one...

One shot
You only get one shot
Keep your eye on the target
You only get one shot
One shot

One shot
Are you ready

For your one shot
Are you ready
For your one shot
