

Arterial Spray Patterns

Devourment

Enter darkness
Where blood splatters with every cut

Candles light the sigils in this carnal dungeon
Crucifixes inverted in sacrilege and sin
Explore the realms of your darkest fantasies
Execute yourselves through the ways of the flesh

Nothing in this room is forbidden
We all shall die in ecstasy

Bloodshed and debauchery - intercourse entwined with sadism
Domination and submission - paraphilic vampirism
No safe words will be had in this dungeon painted with red liquid
Compulsive ingestion for the ones who may have become addicted
Motivated by the sight, we brandish our razor sharp steel
Slicing through our arteries, consensual drainage of life

Indulgence and pleasure take control over the pain
Blood erupts in fountains surging from our butchered veins
Copious amounts producing timeless works of art
Projecting through the air to the pulse of our still beating hearts

Gruesome patterns paint the ceiling - high blood pressure, so appealing

Nonstop bleeding
Rapid heart beating
Life receding

Thou shalt perish in ritual

Drain the blood, sanctify my sickness
Drain the blood, sanctify my sickness
Drain the blood, sanctify my sickness
Drain the blood, sanctify my sickness

Drain the blood, sanctify my sickness
Drain the blood, sanctify my sickness
Drain the blood, sanctify my sickness
Drain the blood, self-induced exsanguination

Drenched and writhing in pools of crimson fluid
Ecstasy and death coalesce as one
Lives relinquished with bliss upon our faces
Eternal darkness willfully obtained
