

Brainstorming

DGM

Silences of the grave are coming in my room far noise beyond the door witness of my sorrow
This is my destiny perpetual in my mind can you feel the energy? I can't show you it now

Time, I need my time. Time, I need my time

I can see now after my blindness

Why you can't see They're making fun of you?
I was the slave of the darkness, why don't you see?
You never see me again

Day after day, I'm feeling down so I cry in my darkest night, hoping I survive but there is no survival for me, and there is no escape for you what I feel it's only fear but there's nothing I can do

I can see now after my blindness

Why you can't see They're making fun of you?
I was the slave of the darkness, why don't you see?
You never see me again
