

Invisible

Diabolus In Musica

Ice that cannot be felt
A storm that cannot be heard
A light that cannot be seen by anyone

Warmth that will never soothe
Words that will stay occult
A pain that won't be relieved by anyone

Your're a crazy dancer in an empty stage
(You're alone, you feel lost)
Can't be touched and can't be held
Consumed in hell
(Being consumed in this hell)

Invisible no one seems to care
A silent ghost, an innocent
Invisible, nonexistent
A smothered spark damned in this farce

In the ocean a drop
In the mist just a cloud
In this song nothing but a silent chord

Warmth that will never soothe
Word that will stay occult
In the ocean a drop, in the mist just a cloud
In the ocean just a small drop, in the thick mist
Just a light drop

Warmth that will never soothe
Word that will stay occult
In the ocean a drop, in the mist just a cloud
