

In It for the Race

Diane Birch

Finger to the sky, low on ammunition you're the only enemy
Changin' on the fly, boy my premonition never tells a lie Well you should try just a little bit more every time you think it's enough
'Cause you do it like you done it before
Clearly you're not lookin' for love

You're just in it for the race, in it for the race of hearts
(Don't you wanna see me again)
You're just in it for the chase, in it for the chase of hearts
(Don't you wanna see me again)
Did I fall just the way you like, in the shadows on your face f rom the candlelight?
Blowin' like a kiss in the wind, you're just in it for the race

You got your fingers in the pie, eyes on every corner and down every street
Zero on the dial, I'm goin' back to Cali for a little while Well could you be just a little bit more obviously one to ignor e?
'Cause I've seen you on the run before

You're just in it for the race, in it for the race of hearts
(Don't you wanna see me again)
You're just in it for the chase, in it for the chase of hearts
(Don't you wanna see me again)
Yeah did I fall just the way you like, in the shadows on your f ace from the candlelight?
Blowin' like a kiss in the wind

Oooh you're just in it for the race, in it for the race of hear ts
(Don't you wanna see me again)
You're just in it for the chase, in it for the chase of hearts
(Don't you wanna see me again)
You're just in it for the race, in it for the race of hearts
(Don't you wanna see me again)
You're just in it for the chase, in it for the chase of hearts
(Don't you wanna see me again)
