Sure Thing

Diane Schuur

The favorite doesn't always win
No matter what they are
Since nobody knows how they'll come in
I'll leave it to the God

So wish me a luck
Because I'm going to bet on
A sentimental hunch
My heart has suddenly settled

Somehow I'm sure I found a sure thing in you Something within tells me we'll win Somewhere my heart has picked you out of the blue And since I'm only a beginner, a winner I'll be

But win or lose whatever comes up Your thumbs up with me

One thing I'm sure, I'm sure of All my life through If love can figure out a sure thing That sure thing is you
