

Touch

Diane Schuur

Listen to my heart
The time has come for true confession
We seem to grow apart
But change is one of loves concession

Don't let passion fade
Protect the vow me made
Can't we find a way to try?
Hold on to what is real
Everything we feel

Touch (Whisper)
Don't loose touch
Don't loose your touch
Baby my heart is crying
Don't loose touch
Don't loose your touch
It's not too late for trying
I need you so.

We lost our faith
Afraid that the spell might be broken
Caught in our ways
Too many words went unspoken
We can stand our ground
Proud of what we found
Good has come from how we've changed
Pretend this is day one
You know how it's done

Touch (Whisper)
Don't loose touch
Don't loose your touch
Baby my heart is crying
Don't loose touch
Don't loose your touch
It's not too late for trying

Don't loose touch
Don't loose your touch
Baby Comfort and guide me
Don't loose touch
Don't loose your touch
Spend a lifetime beside me
I need you so.

Don't let passion fade
Protect the vow me made
Can't we find a way to try?
Hold on to what is real
Everything we feel

Don't loose touch
Don't loose your touch
Don't loose your touch

It's not too late for trying

Don't loose touch

Don't loose your touch

Baby Comfort and guide me

Don't loose touch

Don't loose your touch

Spend a lifetime beside me

I need you so.....
