Diary of Dreams

Oblivion

Immortal hatred longing For what I've done to you A shattered dream of greed Confess of a faded bloom

Reminded day by day The scars just cannot heal Still unforgiven guilt Am I a child within your hands?

Tear my heart out, let me fall Keep my faith enclosed in walls Like a child within your hands Close my eyes and let me fall

Into oblivion I urge For you I dare to feel regret A sacrifice I cannot fear How can I cure what you protect?

Immortal hatred longing For what I've done for you A shattered dream of need Moments without truth

A mournful sacrifice The scars will never heal
