

Perfect Halo

Diary of Dreams

Embracing the burden
Of the ravenous void
All this was given
For us to destroy

And ashes will fall
On the infertile soil
Blue now in colors
And shadows in foil

Find me please
To save me from myself

Perfect
Counting the days
This is perfect
Live for today

Make it perfect
Ignore all the shame
Life is perfect... for you

And hearts have forgotten
The poisonous thorn
So trusting in arms
And willows to mourn

Enemies gather
To do as they're told
Not knowing another
To have and to hold
