

Befriend my cold silence
I try not to lose my mind
I listen quietly to hear you sing
And I will drain the rivers just for you
The clouds inhale me to make it all come true

I see, I feel, I shatter
Too painful to admit
Alone with my demons
Alone with myself
I cannot believe I got lost in this hell

Forgive me tomorrow
I live for today

I try to forgive myself for just one moment
I'm wide awake when I'm asleep

And when I dream, I dream for you
And when I'm lost, I'm lost for you
And when I pray, I pray for you
And when I fail, I fail for you
