

the Hunted

Diary of Dreams

Let me in your world to dream
Leave me in this empty scene

What you need is what you don't have Let me out. Your cage is too small for us

Is this the time to feel motivated when you try to survive me
Is it the moment to feel liberated when you
try to survive me

Speak no more. All is said
Try no more. All is lost

Play your game and take a last chance Place your bet and lose what you have, my friend
