Come Crashing

Digital Daggers

Hear your thunder calling
From a distant sky
Wanna feel I've known this
For 1000 lives
When the heavens falling
And I see the light
Taken from my slumber
From a dream I've died
From a dream I've died
Bring me back to life

Every time I look in your eyes
I see lightning
Cover me when there's no where to hide
You come crashing
Give me chaos when there's nothing inside
Pull me into your untamed sky
Every time I look into your eyes
You come crashing

Feel the tempest storming
Calm the shifting tides
Saw your shadow only
Wanna be revived
From a dream of died
From a dream

Every time I look in your eyes
I see lightning
Cover me when there's no where to hide
You come crashing
Give me chaos when there's nothing inside
Pull me into your untamed sky
Every time I look into your eyes
You come crashing

Take me
Break me
Say you'll save me
Say you'll save me
Say you'll save me

Every time I look in your eyes
I see lightning
Cover me when there's no where to hide
You come crashing
Give me chaos when there's nothing inside
Pull me into your untamed sky
Every time I look into your eyes
You come crashing down
You come crashing down

(Say you'll save me)
(Say you'll save me)
