

Could you throw it all away
Another day, another sunrise calls to me
Saying get out of this place
Breaking down has become a part of my life now,
But I'm so sick of always having to feel this

Could you throw away
All of,
Your sick desires
Just to suffocate like me?
And set the whole damn world on fire
Just to suffocate with me
(Suffocate)

Could you throw away
Your sick desires
Just to suffocate like me
And set the whole damn world on fire
Just to suffocate with me
(Suffocate)

Just to suffocate with me!
Just to suffocate with me.

Could you throw away
Could you throw away

Could you throw away
