

A Matter of Time

Dillon

Rain drops trees rise valleys sink and seas divide
it's only a matter of time

Temperatures rise mountains peak, skies fall, floods tide
it's only a matter of time

With the waves
guiding me
I give way
go astray

Rain fills my eyes
in the sea I lose my mind
I'm only a matter of time

When we collide
mountains peak, skies fall, floods tide
We're only a matter of time
