My train of thought derailed
Heading nowhere
Lost track of time
A standstill full of despair
When the longing grows
Minds take hold
Hands unfold, letting go

My train of thought derailed
Heading nowhere
Untraveled paths ahead
I came unprepared
When the longing grows
Minds take hold
Hands unfold, I let go

Moving forward

Forward

My train of thought derailed
Heading nowhere
A place in time where ends meet
Who will guide us there?
When the longing grows
Minds take hold
Hands unfold and let go
