

Kind

Dillon

How tall will I grow?
Only time will show
It passes by slowly
I feel hollow & tiny

Be kind, let in the light
With time, let in the light

How tall will I grow?
Only time will show
It passes by slowly
And feels as though
You are breaking

You are an indication
Of trust and affection
With the purest intentions
We plant our love in you

How tall I will grow
Only time will show
It passes by in heartbeats
I feel feel my insides quaking

With the purest intentions
I plant my love in you
