

Knowing I Won't Go Back There

Dion

Cold winds blow through fields of pine
Rain won't drown this pain of mine
I think of her so warm and fair
Knowing I won't go back there

I wonder if she looks the same
Maybe she forgot my name
Think of her long goin' hair
Knowing I won't go back there

She said she'd love me
And shed stay right by my side
And then one day she spoke the words she couldn't hide

She said she'd found the guy that she's been dreamin' of

I couldn't cry
I just said goodbye my love

I had to leave that town behind
Had to let my thoughts unwind
I'll go my way and I won't care
Knowing I won't go back there

I'll go my way and I won't care
Knowing I won't go back there
