

I Feel Energy

Dirty Projectors

Garden of flowers all bloomed
When the wall turned right
Laughter echoes my room but it dies outside
Are we fundamentally alone in the universe?
What would it possibly mean if we found in each other

Something unexplained (in the field remains)
Lingering strange lights (in the summer night sky)
Something opening (inauspicious)
Beginning (from the time) when our eyes are the design

I feel energy
Could this be just a Tinder dream?
I feel energy, yeah
I breathe, you breathe, we
I, I, I, I feel energy
I feel energy

Sometimes I get so depressed (depressed)
And I just can't move
Don't cry, they make you feel like you're dead (dead)
And it's never going to improve

But then something unexplained (in the field remains)
Lingering perfume (in the midsummer night)
Something opening (our own consciousness)
Beginning in the room when our eyes are the design

I feel energy
Could this be just a Tinder dream?
I feel energy
I feel energy, yeah
I feel energy
I dream, you dream, we
I, I, I, I feel energy
I feel energy
I, I, I, I feel energy
I feel energy

What entitles you to live again?
The world's about to end
How can you pretend?
Strife and survival
We wholly depend
On our hope and love received and sent

I, I, I, I feel energy
I feel energy
I, I, I, I feel energy
I feel energy
I feel energy (I feel)
I, I, I, I feel energy
I feel, I feel
I feel energy
I feel energy
I, I, I, I feel energy
I feel energy

I feel energy
I feel energy (I feel)

I feel energy
I feel energy
I feel energy
I, I, I, I feel energy
I feel energy
I feel energy
I, I, I, I feel energy
