

I have come to worship the Lord of Lords
In this place it's Your face I will adore
Everyday God I need You more and more
So I am here to seek You out Lord
I have come to praise the King of Kings
Lift up my hands and shout and sing
I can't express all the power that it brings
When I lift my life up to the King
If it's Your will, I'll live till I'm 99
If it's Your will, You can take my life tonight
Until then I'll praise You
Until then I'll praise You
Lord I ask that You shine Your light of life
That You manifest Your power and Your might
Your mercy changes the wrongs to right
As I sing Your praise throughout the night
So I pray to the God who never dies
Through His foolishness He confounds the wise
He speaks the truth and never lies
And I believe the promise of Your coming

If it's Your will, I'll live till I'm 99
If it's Your will, You can take my life tonight
Until then I'll praise You
Until then I'll praise You

If it's Your will, I'll live till I'm 99
If it's Your will, You can take my life tonight
Until then I'll praise You
Until then I'll praise You
