

Stay on Target

Dismantled

You can bend your knees
I won't hear your pleas
I'm not here to cure
Your selfish ways

So don't you follow me
I'm not the one you seek
Once you're spitting teeth
Maybe you'll finally see

There is no disease
Except the one you breed
It made you who you are
And now you're chasing it

Wish you could burn the bridge
And start without it
But it's in your blood
To fail so miserably

So stay on target
And ignore their screams
They'll keep burning
As long as we exist

Never thought you'd be the victim
Always made it sound so simple
Now it's all gone and there's just one thing
Left to prove your existence

So stay on target

Now you're underground
Are you satisfied?
The rubble raining down
Will be the only sound

As the flames burn past
All that you thought was life
Don't you stop and think
How it could of turned out?

Just know there's no disease
Except the one you breed
It made you who you are
And now you're chasing it

Wish you could burn the bridge
And start without it
But it's in your blood
To fail so miserably

So stay on target
And ignore their screams
They'll keep burning
As long as we exist
