Forged with Hate

Dismember

Stranger to empathy, numb to remorse, when I've taken your head I'm the winner of wars

So intense and demanding the vengeance inside, my will for powe  ${\bf r}$  will never subside

Outgrowing sane control, I'm as close as your heartbeat

Stab my way through religious beliefs, life is such a slow dise

When only fear is audible screaming your name, dread the last s ense that remains in this game

Forged with hate Faced down and thrashed to oblivion

Concealed murder a tool of the trade, fate is sealed and deals are made

Fear established in society, smoke and shadow I chose to be

Embrace the moment of death Reflect the invittions in my victims eyes, cut off their faces and all the lies

Behind the masks that haunt me all is hollow, still I search be nath the raptures of the shallow

Now it all comes clear After this there'll be nothing to fear
