Let the Napalm Rain

Dismember

Indoctrination since early youth murder of the free thinking mind religion the root of all evil the source of all suffering

Deeper and deeper into the void across the wasteland of your mind lying to live, living their lie they make you betray your own kind

Life of agony you have chosen your way self induced misery you are led astray

The free will shall carry the day drop the bomb and wash the filth away let the napalm rain

Step into the sickening light into ruins of heavenly might embide yourself in their moral vanity sell your soul to insanity

Religion is an excuse for a lack of character something to fall back on when all else fails

Islam, Hindu, Christianity it's all based on lies there is no key to paradise believe in yourself and all gods die

V. LIVE FOR THE FEAR (OF PAIN) Music: D. Blomqvist, R. Senneb"ck, F. Estby. Lyrics: F. Estby

Born without dying empty walk alone for a lifetime denied the spark of life forever missing a fear so vast it grows inside

Soul bleeding never healing at the end of the day my spirit leaving

Of all I own handful of a solid void what's left to give can't get rid of all this guilt blame myself for as long as I live

Shadow of the former me reach for surface can't break free

Blind, Cold, Bitter from dreamfield to death wasted life on living suicidals see no reason for another breath Still forsaken hope all taken keep on feeding the nightmares within I see it clear still so tragic against frustration no one wins

Sinking deep into depression suffering the weight of confession

Upon the loss of a better fate laid out before me all pure hate
