

Dai Jesu achoinekwa ndaizofara naye.
Dai Jesu achoinekwa ndaizofara naye.
Taizofara naye fara naye.
Taizofara naye fara naye.
Dai Jesu achoinekwa ndaizofara naye.
Dai Jesu achoinekwa ndaizofara naye.
Taizofara naye fara naye.
Taizofara naye fara naye.
Kwaziwai? Kwaziwai?
Makasimba, here?
Ndakasimba kana makasimbawo Ndakasimba, Ndakasimba. Ndakasimba kana makasimbawo.

You raise your head, you beat the sun
But your boys they lie so close to you Do you dare get up and wake the two Oh Elias, I see you there at work in the day time
Do you think you answer all the questions in the world In just one word -- I think you could

'Cause if you die will I get word that you're gone
or will I hear it in passing conversation
or will I stop short and fall to the ground distance is short when your hand carries what your eye found
hold my hand just one more time
to see if you're really going to meet me
hold my hand just one more time
to see if you're really going to meet me

Honest and Manuel, well they're at school now Given the chance that their father's never seen
To see what's beyond section 17
And in ten years when you look back at your boys Well you know they're grown way taller than the tallest Sugar cane in the field

'Cause if you die will I get word that you're gone
or will I hear it in passing conversation
or will I stop short and fall to the ground
hold my hand just one more time
to see if you're really going to meet me
hold my hand just one more time
to see if you're really going to meet me

I see your wife she stands stooped over by the fire outside and I see your boys and when they look up you know I think they got their mother's eyes
'cause she looks so proud, she looks so happy she looks so proud, she looks so happy

'Cause if you die will I get word that you're gone
or will I hear it in passing conversation
or will I stop short and fall to the ground
hold my hand just one more time
to see if you're really going to meet me

hold my hand just one more time
to see if you're really going to meet me
