

Heaven's Damnation

Dissection

Striking over oceans of blood
Over Kingdoms in fears
Where the night bred it's cold dark the winter drew near
Watch the sky the crimson tears of heaven
The darkened mist of burning hate
Ashes of the past, Years that fell into oblivion Visions so dim they had, memories of a time yet to come
Watch the sky the crimson tears of heaven
As damnation reach the hidden lands
Through forests of profanity
The sound of cries
Brought forth by the night sky
Invoked by their tongues, Yes they're truly awake now
The souls that were sleeping under the tree of death
And I laugh as I burn down the pearly gates of light
And forever I'll be within the arms of abomination
Embrace of eternal dark
With the ancient souls at the sides
Wastelands bathed in evil... are one with the blackened sky
Watch the sky the crimson tears of heaven
fade to black and welcome the night of all nights
