

Unhallowed

Dissection

Pain, plague and pestilence shall sweep through your sight
Grim is the truth that hides behind the fading light
The eyes of the beholder stares empty, silent and cold
For the deeds of the dark ones are fearful to behold

With lifted dreadful swords we swear allegiance to our lord
We're the unhallowed usurpers of the throne

Dusk will bring the gathered ones upon the feeble men of God
Superior mighty warriors of pure unhallowed blood
Shoulder to shoulder they reign in the darkest of nights
Together at the edge of time, brought forth to slay the light

Thy majesty, our majesty, sole superior evil itself
We'll be your instrument and the blade of their damnation

So futile humas on the knees for the Satanized
Burning high at the stakes with the love of Christ

Do not rest in peace, may your souls all burn black
Your sons and daughters I will kiss with a poisoned smile
Sing out the pain of your roots that you cannot deny
We'll crush your worthless prayers of the weak forgotten lie

The apocalypse is here, oh fools of the withering sky
Encounter darkness as you fall into the endless fire
The jaws of darkness open wide, lost souls scream out in vain
All will writhe eternity's perpetual infernal pain

With lifted dreadful swords we swear allegiance to our lord
We're the unhallowed usurpers of the throne
