Decadence

Disturbed

Say, yes they know that you've hurt yourself another time Don't they know that you're full of pain already? Yes, they know that you've hurt yourself another time Decadence isn't easy, is it?

Yes, they know that you've hurt yourself another time Don't they know that you're full of pain already? Yes, they know that you've hurt yourself another time Decadence isn't easy

Then you slowly recall all your mind Why your soul's gone cold and all hope has run dry, dead inside Never enough to forget that you're one of the lonely Slowly recall all your mind

Say, yes they know that you've hurt yourself another time Don't they know that you're full of pain already? Yes, they know that you hurt yourself another time Decadence isn't easy, is it?

Yes, they know that you've hurt yourself another time Don't they know that you're full of pain already? Yes, they know that you've hurt yourself another time Decadence isn't easy

Then you slowly recall all your mind Why your soul's gone cold, and all hope has run dry, dead insid e Never enough to forget that you're one of the lonely Slowly recall all your mind

If I scare you now, don't run from me
I've been hiding my pain, you see
Tell if I scare you now, don't run from me
I've been hiding my pain, you see

Slowly recall all your mind Why your soul's gone cold, and all hope has run dry, dead insid e Never enough to forget that you're one of the lonely Slowly recall all your mind, you'll slowly recall all your mind

Say, yes they know that you've hurt yourself another time Don't they know that you're full of pain already? Yes, they know that you've hurt yourself another time Decadence isn't easy, is it?
