

Survive

Diva Destruction

How did i let you, tempt me once again, how Did I get into such a mess with you, your Greatest secret was my private hell, but you'll Escape once more, as I pay for it all!!
I may beg now but later it's you, i'll forget you in
The end, cause this won't ever last at all, I'll Survive you, i've survived worst, so don't flatter
Yourself too much, if they only knew, the other Side of you, you're more guilty than i could ever
Be, but you always lie better than my thruth!!
And they only hear, whatever they want to!!
