

The One

Diva Destruction

I still feel you through all this time
And I know that you feel me too,
Yet you deny now your confessions,
But you still want me, I know you want me.

Cause it's in your touch,
Cause you know it's true,
Cause you always were 'The One'.

Never better, Never better
Isn't that what you wrote?
Never better, Never better
Don't deny it again.

The one felt most
Is one denied,
but denied too much.

So why fight this anymore
After all that you have risk
So why hide it, why always hide me
Can't you admit, to even yourself

It's in your touch, you know it's true
So just admit it, admit it, admit it now.
