

I've Only Got Myself to Blame

Dixie Chicks

Hot night tonight, I've got a fever in my bones
I don't know what it is that drives me so far away from home
But I've walked the white line til the time that I cannot stand no more

Then I take my boots off and I lay down on the floor
You know that I've only got myself to blame
Don't be afraid to call my name And if you find me by the roads ide
And if I seem a bit uneasy I know I've seen a darker day but ha ve
I seen the light You know that I've only got myself to blame

Walkin' down the road I wanna fade into the night
I've turned my back on better days but tonight
I'll stay in bed
All alone a country song that's burnin' in my head

Don't be ashamed to call my name
And if you find me feelin' lonesome
And if I seem a bit uneasy
Know that I've only got myself to blame

Well I turn my head up to the sky and it's down the road
I go I'd tell you where I'm going but it's truly
I don't know
And I don't look for no affection, I've always gone alone
When you see me coming home you'll know I'll soon be gone
And if you find me by the roadside

Don't be afraid to call my name
You know that I've only got myself to blame
And if I seem a bit uneasy
You know that I've only got myself to blame
