

Jealousy Hurts

Dizmas

Hold on tight cause jealousy hurts
we've come so far but remained the same

We need something new to love with cause our hearts are broken.

We dont love like we should.

Chorus: We try, and we've tried honey to take love and, make love pretty

The verdict is guilty honey we all love with bad intentions

Let's not go back to what we regret
we never learned so i'll take blame

We need something new to love with cause our hearts are broken.

why dont we love like we should.

We can feel the tension to get too close too one another. Oh, oh, oh.

Cause i've been drinking poison and honey you've made the same mistake. Oh, oh, oh.
