

Nothing At All

Dizmas

I say your name
And you dont say mine back to me
And that just breaks my heart
If you hold the truth
And dont share a thing with me
How are you so quick to judge?
If you hold the cure
Dont keep it to yourself

Chorus:

All Im trying to say is that youre being too hard
Cause I dont believe in what you believe in
Opinions only go so far
Have compassion thats all Im really asking
But youre not showing it, no youre not showing it
If you are what love is then maybe love is not for me
But youre not hearing me
No youre not listening at all

You scream at me
Cause I dont act like you
Maybe today is not your day
If you could just see the picture youre painting for me with youre ways I think youd change

Chorus:

All Im trying to say is that youre being too hard
Cause I dont believe in what you believe in
Opinions only go so far
Have compassion thats all Im really asking
But youre not showing it, no youre not showing it
If you are what love is then maybe love is not for me
But youre not hearing me
No youre not listening at all

If you have nothing good to say to me
Then dont say nothing at all
Dont say nothing all
If you have nothing good to say to me
Youre saying nothing at all
Youre saying nothing at all
If you have nothing good to say to me
Youre saying nothing at all

But youre not hearing me
No youre not listening at all

All Im trying to say is that youre being too hard
Cause I dont believe in what you believe in
Opinions only go so far
Have compassion thats all Im really asking
But youre not showing it, no youre not showing it
If you are what love is then maybe love is not for me
But youre not hearing me
No youre not listening at all
But youre not hearing me

No youre not listening at all
