

Accept My Flaws Pt. 2

Dizzy Wright

She said

I guess I gotta just deal with the bullshit. You about to grab your full clip so you can go retaliate

You wanna know why I'm trippin? Cause I don't wanna have to birth this baby on my own and have to explain why you passed away
You say, you good, like you may be home. But in my heart I know you may be wrong

I wish you understood I wouldn't agreed to a baby if you was gonna be beefing with other hoods, you trynna play me out

A negative is how you make me out but if something happened to you which one of your hommies gonna help me raise this child?

We was in this together, be a man. And if they killed yo friend I know damn well they'll kill again

So don't you look at me stupid like everything's alright, it's not alright your stupidity can cost you your life

And now I'm stuck with your child, understand me, you worried about your goons and I'm worried about this family

Can you accept my flaws? (When it all comes falling down)

Can you accept my flaws? (When it all comes falling down)

Can you accept my flaws? (When it all comes falling down)

Can you accept my flaws? (When it all comes falling down)

He said

I guess I gotta just deal with the bullshit. The fact that they used a full clip to kill my fucking best friend

So why you talkin about family? I considered him family, so don't mistake this for a muthafucking deathjam

I'm trynna tell you I'm good, but if they take me home, I pray to God that you keep my baby strong

I may be wrong trynna handle with altercation, but how can I live my life if I ran from this situation?

So I take a little vacation after my nigga got blasted. I was riding when he was riding

Now I'm supposed to be scared of a casket you ain't feelin' that?

I ain't no killa but I'm killing back

I don't give a fuck!

I'm a retaliate like I can bring my nigga back

It's war, it's not my kindness it's insanity. Take a friend of mine and now everybody's an enemy

Fuck it I gotta do it, don't lose it I know you hate this shit, but I'll be damned if they get away with this. It's on

Can you accept my flaws? (When it all comes falling down)

Can you accept my flaws? (When it all comes falling down)

Can you accept my flaws? (When it all comes falling down)

Can you accept my flaws? (When it all comes falling down)

Had ya pride not got in the way, I would have known just what I meant to you
Had my pride not got in the way, you would have known, just what you mean to me

Can you accept my flaws? (When it all comes falling down)
Can you accept my flaws? (When it all comes falling down)
Can you accept my flaws? (When it all comes falling down)
Can you accept my flaws? (When it all comes falling down)
