

Under Fire

Django Django

Under street lights, everything looks the same
Hiding in the shadows like we're playing a game
Think it over, cos I can't understand
Talk is getting cheaper, still nothing is planned

Say nothing
Say nothing
Say nothing
Say nothing
Say nothing
Say nothing

The cities restless, seems like nothing will change
Thought's wont fit together but I can't rearrange
Left together, now I'm here on my own
The night is going nowhere when you're walking alone

Say nothing
Say nothing
Say nothing
Say nothing
Say nothing
Say nothing

Under fire
Under fire

Nothings easy, feel the wind at your back
Every move you make it's like you're stopped in your tracks
Turn the corner, try to leave it behind
Gonna start all over with a new frame of mind

Say nothing
Say nothing
Say nothing
Say nothing
Say nothing
Say nothing

Under fire
