

Appointment

DMA's

I waited for hours
Whatever appointment
And all unforgiven
And lost all their powers

I waited for no one
Whatever commitment
It's all unforgiven
Not bothered at all

And if it even mattered
Note to self, pull over
Well, I could wait for hours
For me, if not for nothing
For nothing

I waited for hours
Whatever commitment
It's all unforgiven
Not bothered at all

And if it even mattered
Note to self, pull over
Well, I can wait for hours
For me, if not for nothing
But for anyone

Well, I can wait for hours

And if it even matters
You told me it was over
But I can wait for hours
'Cause you are not for anyone
But forever

Forever
