DMA's

I think I heard it coming
I think you left it behind
I had a ticket on the moment
How could you leave me in my mind?
You keep your cool in the morning
I think it's better on the plan inside me
Yeah, inside me

I wanna feel the ones, the world behind a breeze
But you're breaking out
Yeah, you're breaking out
To find me, yeah, to find me

You never heard me coming
I had a ticket on my mind
You want to think that you're bigger
You know you're bigger than the time behind me
Yeah, behind me

I wanna feel the ones, the world behind a breeze
But you're breaking out
Yeah, you're breaking out
Keep your cool in the morning
It's bigger than the plan
And you never cared what's in your head
To find me

I wanna feel the ones, the world behind a breeze
But you're breaking out
Yeah, you're breaking out
Keep your cool in the morning
It's bigger than the plan
And you never cared what's in my head
Beside me

Yeah, I know that you want it to be
