

Are You the One

Dodgy

Could you be the one I'm searching for?
Is the road ahead an open door?
Can you pour from your cup and love completely?
Are you the one to make me more than me?
Do you have a dream I can believe in?
Is there room in your heart for someone new?
Can you be content with what you're given?
Listen to the love inside of you

Can we drink in the moonlight and lay in the sun?
Can you still smile when you feel done?
But before you go I'd like to know

Tell me are you the one
Tell me are you the one
Tell me are you the one
I need to know

Girl, I see the child inside of you
Do your eyes go misty like the dew?
Would your heart beat and your spirit fly
If I was to try for you and I?

Can we drink in the moonlight and lay in the sun?
Can you still smile when you feel done?
But before you go I'd like to know

Tell me are you the one
Tell me are you the one
Tell me are you the one
I need to know

Can we drink in the moonlight and lay in the sun?
Can you still smile when you feel done?
But before you go I'd like to know

Tell me are you the one
Tell me are you the one
Tell me are you the one
Tell me are you the one
I need to know

So tell me are you the one
Tell me are you the one
Tell me are you the one
I need to know
