

Stop thinking of tomorrow
Stop thinking about your sorrow
Shut up and look at me
Stop playing hide and seek
With me my dear
Why don't you let yourself go
Why don't you shrink in my sea
You won't drown

When I dream of you
It's like embracing the shadows
Of the untold
Me and my reveries
And no regrets

Longing to see you
Longing to be free
Hell is calling beneath my feet
No relief to the pain I keep inside

When I dream of you
It's like embracing the shadows
Of the untold
Me and my reveries
And no regrets

I just can't pretend no more
While your shadow weighs down on me
And plays with me

When I dream of you
It's like embracing the shadows
Of the untold
Me and my reveries
And no regrets
