

I can see clearly now
The fog has been lifted up
The blade has been forged
The night is now morning
And I'm finally waking up

I've gone from obsessed
To broken-hearted, possessed
By anger, looked in the mirror
And I've seen myself become a stranger
Was it all part of the plan,
To know who I am?

I can see clearly now
There's nothing in my way
My tongue is untied
I've been through hell and survived
And I've got a lot to say

I've gone from obsessed
To broken-hearted, possessed
By anger, looked in the mirror
And I've seen myself become a stranger
Was it all part of the plan,
To know who I am?

To know who I am
To know who I am
To know who I am
To know who I am

My eyes have opened up
The light has been creeping in
I'm ready for my life to begin
To begin!

I know who I am
I know who I am
I know who I am
I know who I am
I know who I am
I know who I am
I know who I am
I know who I am
I know who I am!
