

So Alone

Dommin

I don't know where I'm going
And all that now surrounds me
Feels like I'm in a foreign land
And everyone I've known
They've disappeared completely
Even the friends I thought I had
It's so sad

Oh I feel so alone
Oh I can't trust in anyone anymore
Oh I feel all alone
Oh I can't trust in anyone anymore

I'm in a crowded room
But there's a desert in me
Feels like I have a stranger's face
I've gotta end this soon
The solitude, I'm weary
No I know lives in this place
Not a trace

I feel so alone
Oh I can't trust in anyone anymore
Oh I feel all alone
Oh I can't trust in anyone anymore

I thought you could be someone
I could lean on, feel security
I thought you could be someone
To me

I thought you could be someone

I feel so alone
Oh I can't trust in anyone anymore
Oh I feel all alone
Oh I can't trust in anyone anymore
I can't trust in anyone anymore
I can't trust in anyone anymore
I can't trust in anyone anymore
