

Upside Down

Dommin

I have an odd and funny feeling
I shouldn't stand on the ceiling
I think my eyes, they have been deceived

Every word is a contortion
And every fact is a distortion
I'm hearing things that I just can't believe

Because the world is upside down
Because the world is upside down
Because the world is upside down
And I'm hanging on for dear life

Every face is a stranger
And everyone is a danger
Not a place that seems to feel like home

Common sense isn't common
And the foe is a straw man
You feel so helpless, frightened and alone

Because the world is upside down
Because the world is upside down
Because the world is upside down
And I'm hanging on for dear life

Because the world is upside down
Because the world is upside down
Because the world is upside down
And I'm hanging on for dear life
