

Faded in the Moment

Domo Genesis

Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah-yeah, yeah-yeah...

Girl, I know you feeling this energy
Hundred miles away and I still remember it vividly, I just pictured the imagery, we Are just so small in this picture of life, belittles me, if
A natural high off of these feelings you been giving me, but I pray for feelings this good, forever-ever
Forever-ever-ever, and never tear it apart
It's kinetic, as long as we at it, we sharing a heart
Paint your picture from [?], cause together I feel its [?]
As we, take it slow, babe I hoping you're getting these messages, cause
I'm already got me feeling R. Kelly, it's you
Killing me softly while I'm speaking [?] evidence
Got a hard nigga contemplating 'bout benevolence, but I played my role right...
Cause I been dreaming of this shit my whole life
Seeing glimpses of the future and it's so bright
C-4 on the stove, and a coal [?], that's what we explode like
Uh

Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah-yeah, yeah-yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah-yeah

Word to Omarion, I had an icebox where my heart at
And shawty lit a fire and I ain't know where to start at
I need to know what the [caught?] at like a phoenix rising out the ashes
Like packed arenas with my music blasting
Like roller coasters, you screaming
All my love, you say you need it faster
Make golden moments then get weed right after Got me faded on a feeling, oh so strong, hope that I don't get jaded, on This melody you singing, me, I carry a cadence on It's us, bet we ready for whatever any weather brings
We came from nothing, want to be somebody's everything
[?] over [?], don't need anything, set your screen
Just 101, check it up, I give you the best of me
Baby we balling, said you won't catch a player slip
But maybe I'm falling, maybe I'm all up in the zone
Maybe that's why my text-es is clogging up your phone
This love is honestly too hard to leave alone, uh

Uh
Yeah, uh
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah-yeah, yeah-yeah, uh [x3]
Yeah, yeah, uh
Yeah

[Cam O'Bi:]
You and me, cuh, we're faded in the uh

You and me, go, doing the thing, tuh
Oh... yeah! Cuh
You and me, cuh, we're faded in the morning, yeah
