

They just want that fast bread
I was out there double dutching on my last leg I'ma always roll the dice just like Stuck inside my mind, don't know what's going on inside it
You say that pressure how come all I hear is silence?
Getting high and asking God how he can guide this shit
I'm too consistent with the vibe how I provide that
So if you let me come alive, wait, alright, that's it

Careful what you aiming for, lord is what you made me for so lately I've been craving more re

All my worries less earthy, I ain't bound to that shit
But my chest and soul full of pride, I'll probably drown in tha t shit
But even when it's ugly I just dive in the trenches
Lows and highs had me feeling this alive in a minute

They just want that fast bread
I was out there double dutching on my last leg
I'ma always roll the dice just like Stuck inside my mind, don't know what's going on inside it

Getting high and asking God how he can guide this shit

I tried to nice speaking with you
You ain't a real unless your team ain't with you
If they your real homies then you got 'em eating
I don't even need company, keep a blunt instead
'Cause it's really me versus the world inside my head and I ain

They just want that fast bread
I was out there double dutching on my last leg
I'ma always roll the dice just like Stuck inside my mind, don't know what's going on inside it
You say that pressure how come all I hear is silence?
Getting high and asking God how he can guide this shit
I'm too consistent with the vibe how I provide that
So if you let me come alive, wait, alright, that's it

Alright that shit should work
