

I can see the world in your eyes
That's what I told the mirror man, this world full of lies
I'm just starting to see it clear now
My experiences has grown to make me feel this now
Starting to lose all the doubt I had inside of my spirit now
Maybe I'm dying for this life
All this madness in hindsight is inspiring what I write
Maybe I'm just a fly, getting blinded by this light
Renew my new song like
Cause I can finally buy the price
Maybe quittin', I would hate to say
For the times it wasn't there we had to make a way
Struggle gave me dreams that never take away
Maybe it's a dream that I'm in day to day
Or maybe I'm just faded, man, ay

[Hook - Tay Walker:]
Maybe I'm loopy
Maybe I'm stupid
Maybe I'm crazy
Maybe I'm going out my mind
I'm just loosely living life
Maybe I'm loco
Maybe I don't know
Exactly what I want
I'll have it before I say goodbye
Just loosely living life
Yeah

Every time I close my eyes
I end up in the Summer sky
Flying over paradise
Yeah, and every time I go to sleep
I end up in a lucid dream
I can do anything
And maybe I'm stupid

Sometimes when I wake up
I think - uh-uh
I sit up and wonder
[rambling]
Sometimes when I wake up
I sit up and wonder
Anyone out there
Anyone ever tell about me
[rambling]
Sometimes when I wake up

Let me try that one more time
Can I just listen to it though?
(Sometimes when I wake up, I sit up and wonder)
