

Revenge Body

Don Broco

Fly 'em out to the villa
Higher power, well, I knew the risk
Takin' names, she a killer
Take 'em down, watch me hold my breath

She's in the business of brilliance
As if I had seconds
Now you gone and replaced me
Well, here we go

Dry my tears on the pillow
Paramours waiting in the wings

Don't fuck with my baby
I won't never waste a moment
Don't fuck with my baby
I don't wanna see that flex

She got that hard body
You're not a nobody
You are a somebody

She's in the business of brilliance
I pray to the heavens you don't have more lined up, no

Strike a pose like you're all obsessed
Hotel heavy hitter
Introduce 'em to all our friends
Introduce 'em to all our friends

Don't fuck with my baby
I won't never waste a moment
Don't fuck with my baby
I don't wanna see that flex

She got that hard body
You're not a nobody
You are a somebody

I can see you're fortified
I can see you thrive
Well enough for me to know you make me sweat

I can see you're fortified
I can see you thrive
Well enough for me to know you make me sweat

I won't never waste a moment

I don't wanna see that flex

Don't fuck with my baby

She got that hard body
That revenge body
Going for spin
Take it for a spin
Got that real hard body
You are a somebody
