

Star Tonight

Don Johnson

She's gonna star tonight just gonna get me off rehearse and play a part tonight
she's gonna star tonight
she's gonna be so good she'll break the critics' hearts tonight Isn't it amazing what the girl can do acting like she's happy when she feels so blue inside no one seems to notice that it's all a play isn't it a wonder how it never seems that way She's gonna star tonight
she's gonna raise the level of her craft to an art tonight
she's gonna star tonight
she gonna blow the competition's hope right off the charts tonight Maybe she'll surprise them with a certain moon freezing like an angster with a baby blues maybe she'll unnerve 'em with the changed plays had to lived released then in a different place isn't it amazing how she makes another change She's gonna star tonight
