

Headed For A Breakdown

Donnie Iris

Now I've been wanting you for so long
And girl my heart is beating so strong
It's a physical attraction
But I can't get the same reaction
Cause you insist on playing games girl
Well you're driving me insane girl

And I'm headed for a breakdown
I can't afford another let down no no
Yes I'm headed for a breakdown
I'm going down down down down down

You're a spider in disguise
You weave your web with a pack of lies
Trapped your prey with a sweet bait
When he finds out it's too late
Cause the spider she will tease you
Have her fun before she eats you

And you're headed for a breakdown
I can't afford another let down no no
Yeah you're headed for a breakdown
Baby I'm down down down down down

Breakdown
Yeah

Oh I wanna be around girl
When somebody takes you down girl
Somebody who is too smart
To let your break another poor heart
Oh life is like a spinning wheel
And one day you'll see how I feel

And you'll be headed for a breakdown
You can't afford another let down
Yes you're headed for a breakdown
Down down down
Oh you're headed for a breakdown
You can't afford another let down no no
Yeah headed for a breakdown
You're goin' down down down
Yeah headed for a breakdown wooh
Yeah headed for a breakdown
Down down down down
