

You're Gonna Miss Me

Donnie Iris

Gonna miss my technique
Gonna miss my charm
You're gonna miss the way you let me
Hold you in my arms

Everybody's looking
Looking far across the land
Looking for love
Everybody wants a second
Second chance

Why must we... fight
Why can't we... try why
Just you wait and see
You're gonna miss me

You're gonna miss my body
You're gonna miss my mind
Gonna learn that love like mine ain't easy to find

Everybody's got someone
Someone to understand
A man needs a women
And a women needs a man

Don't let me go little girl
I'm worth fighting for
Don't try to win the battles
Before you lose the war

Why must we... fight
Why can't we... try why
Just you wait and see
You're gonna miss me
