

Let It Go

Donnie McClurkin

Oh oh
You gotta let it go
...

That hurt in your heart
That pain in your soul
Broken memories
You gotta let it go
The one who hurt you
Walked out and deserted you
They still couldn't break you
You gotta let it go
Depression of the mind
Oppression of the soul
Leave it all behind
You gotta let it go
People can't hurt you no more
People can't reach you no more
People can't find the real you
Cause you're under the bless

Let it go
Let it-let it-let it go
...

Gotta let it go, yeah...
